Counts 12-22:Money Laundering, in violation of Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 1956(a)(1)(A)(I) & (a)(1)(B)(ii) and 2.

Date of Detention Hearing: November 18, 2005.

The Court, having conducted both an uncontested detention hearing pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) and a preliminary Rule 5(c)(3) inquiry. The defendant waived his rights to a full Rule 5(c)(3)(D) hearing and the Court signed an order of transfer to the originating district court of the District of Alaska to answer the charges.

The detention hearing was uncontested, and the defendant may address the issue of detention in Alaska. Moreover, based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, the Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by Todd Greenberg. The defendant was represented by Robert Gombiner.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- (1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed the ten+ year drug offense. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).
- (2) The defendant poses a risk of nonappearance as his background and ties to this district and the District of Alaska are unknown/unverified.
 Defendant also poses a flight risk as he has access to large sums of cash.
- (3) The defendant stipulated to detention.

Thus, there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future court appearances.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (l) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

United States Magistrate Judge

DATED this 28th day of November, 2005.
